

QUALITIES OF A REDEPTIVE EDUCATOR

A Redemptive Educator Demonstrates

A CHRIST-CENTERED FAITH

Active faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior

Understanding of the Gospel

Humility

Respect for self and others

Integrity and fidelity to guiding biblical principles in issues such as sexual purity (as defined in scripture), sobriety, the honoring of human life in all its stages and conditions, and similar.

A GROWTH MINDSET

Active curiosity about life and the world

Life-long learning

Enthusiasm for new things - being "game" to try something new

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION

Relational skills – has a gentle and gracious way with others

Ability to communicate clearly with peers and parents

Ability to effectively instruct students

High competency in written and spoken English or native language

Receptivity and responsiveness in listening, receiving, and sharing feedback and information

CREATIVITY

Initiative in cultivating a fresh and dynamic engagement with the curriculum

Ability to instruct, inspire, and assess students using a variety of strategies and approaches

SERVANT LEADERSHIP

Readiness to identify needs and contribute to solutions

High standard of excellence

Commitment to equipping and edifying others

Quiet confidence in all areas of responsibility

CARE FOR THE WHOLE CHILD

Commitment to nurturing the uniqueness of each child

Dedication to the cultivation of the child's intellectual, spiritual, social, physical, and emotional development