FROM THE PRESIDENT

WHAT IS REDEPTIVE EDUCATION?

What is Redemptive Education? And why would education need to be "redeemed"? According to philosopher Alvin Plantinga, "All has been created good . . . but all has been corrupted by evil, including not only culture but also the natural world. So all – the whole cosmos – must be redeemed by Jesus Christ the Lord..."

SCENT OF WATER

CHILDREN EXPERIENCING JOY

The Scent of Water Learning Community day begins with everyone gathered, up in the barn loft or out on the green. Students, teachers, parents, friends sing "For the Beauty of the Earth" and together recite "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty! ALL that is in the heavens and the earth is Thine!" ...

EXPLORING SCAMPERERS

What are our youngest adventurers exploring this fall? Everything that scampers! Stories, songs, scripture, crafts and "pretends" are all focused on the small creatures that use their little feet to scurry through grass, leaves, gardens and woods as they hunt for food, dodge predators, make their homes and live out God's design...

EQUIPPING SCHOOLS IN THE USA AND ABROAD

The Center for Redemptive Education spreads its educational approach across the USA, through REACH member schools, and across the world, through charitable consulting and equipping. We are currently consulting with Christian educators in Lithuania and Ukraine, the embattled country where teacher Kristin Pushak is this month providing teachers with professional development and resources. Stateside, REACH school member Shari Hepner, Headmaster of the Trace Academy in Orlando, Florida, explains how the Redemptive Education vision aligns with their school: "We continue to renew our membership with the Center for..."
